

Conquering life happens one day at a time

April 18

Champions are not born, they are developed over a period of time. They have clearly defined goals. They know what they want to achieve in life. Most Olympic gold medalists began to think of winning this prestigious athletic event several years before they ever qualified to participate.

Have you ever dreamed of being the best ... the best husband, wife, father, mother, son, daughter, or the best child of God you could possibly be? It all starts with a desire. Then you must take each day and design a strategic plan to become great. Training is what separates the victorious from the mediocre. You see, conquering life happens one day at a time. You will never become a champion in life until you learn to win on a daily basis.

Prayer for Today

Father, please help me to have a future vision with a daily strategy. Help me to focus on tomorrow without sacrificing today. Remind me to do the little things so that You will trust me with the larger things. I need Your help to be the best I can be.

Hebrews 12:1 Therefore we also, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which so easily ensnares us, and let us run with endurance the race that is set before us. (NKJV)
