

*The dynamic things of life are caught,
not taught*

September 13

The ways people learn are most often divided into these broad categories: those who best learn from listening, those who best learn from doing, and those who best learn from reading. Of course, we understand most people have some mixture of and do not learn purely from one single way. Generally, the majority of life lessons are learned from one of these three avenues of education. However, the dynamic things of life are most often caught and not taught. The dynamic things I refer to include the things of the spirit of God which are deeper and more elusive than mere words can harness or transfer. For this reason, both we who learn and those who teach Kingdom principles must possess the anointing which comes by the power of the Holy Spirit, who himself is the great teacher and guide to all truth. The anointing of the Holy Spirit can transfer volumes of truth, bringing revelation, inspiration, and motivation to the hearts and minds of men and women in an instant. Pray that God gives you and those who teach you the anointing necessary to reveal the dynamic truths of life.

Prayer for Today

God grant both me and my teachers the anointing of the Holy Spirit so that we may rightly divide Your Words of Truth.

Scripture for Today

1 John 2:27 But the anointing which you have received from Him abides in you, and you do not need that anyone teach you; but as the same anointing teaches you concerning all things, and is true, and is not a lie, and just as it has taught you, you will abide in Him. (NKJV)
